

Ritmo de Fandango de Huelva

Antes de exponer el ritmo de Fandango de Huelva conviene hacer una aclaración con respecto a su origen. Hay mucha gente que asegura equivocadamente que los fandangos son una forma originaria del folclore andaluz y concretamente de Huelva. Esto es un error, ya que su origen es incierto y de ningún modo se puede documentar su verdadera procedencia y antigüedad. Lo cierto es que numerosos compositores a lo largo de varios siglos, y no todos españoles, compusieron fandangos: Soler, Aguado, Boccherini, Mozart, Rimsky-Korsakov, Falla, Vives, etc. En España existen muchas modalidades y derivaciones, siendo muy característicos los de Huelva y los llamados “abandolaos”. De estos últimos son representativos las malagueñas, las rondeñas, las jaberas, los verdiales, los zánganos, “El Robao” de Baza (Granada), El Fandango de Almería, El Fandango de la Siega (Málaga), etc. y trataré de su ritmo básico en un apartado específico.

Ritmo 1

Musical notation for Ritmo 1, showing two staves of music in 3/4 time. The notation includes various rhythmic patterns, including eighth and sixteenth notes, and rests. The first staff starts with a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and a 3/4 time signature. The second staff continues the pattern. The notation is complex, with many notes and rests, and includes a dashed line under the first staff. The text "etc ....." is written at the end of the second staff.
